Parlor Suits.

Just now in the height of the winter season this store announces an exhibition of Parlor Furniture. This newly arrived lot is truly representative of the skill and eleverness of the master designers of fine furniture.

Knowing full well that this store must always offer its patrons the latest in furniture, we have made a most exquisite collection of the newest productions of the leading manufacturers. A morebeautiful display can't be found anywhere.

Woods that are closely grained, well-seasoned, highly polished and decorated with the carvings of deft workers; the upholstering is all of newly designed material; in fact, the entire display is faultless, and we invite every one to come and admire with us its beauty.
